For cloud like comfort with natural materials, the Tranquility and Serenity mattresses are a smart choice for asthma and allergy sufferers. With the latest in ecofriendly latex technology, the Tranquility and Serenity have antimicrobe qualities and breathable comfort at the core, so your body is well supported night after night.

NATURAL MATERIALS

For a better night's sleep, the Tranquility and Serenity mattresses include fibres such as wool and hemp. Both materials have the benefit of breathability as they are used in the quilt panel, to create a soft and restful sleep surface.

HUMIDITY CONTROL

With superior ventilation properties, the latex core of these mattresses ensures a balanced microclimate and humidity control. The addition of hemp and wool in the quilt blend supports the Pulse Latex layer and allows breathability throughout the mattress.

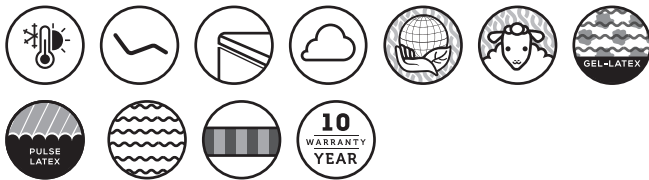

HYPERALLERGIC QUALITIES

Dry, fresh and breathable a latex mattress has natural abilities to prevent the spread of bacteria and harmful microbes, creating an idyllic environment for asthma and allergy sufferers. Pulse Latex provides a hypoallergenic, dust free and moisture repellent environment.

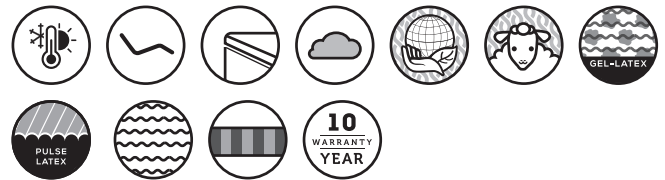

COMFORT AT THE CORE

For a supported night of rest and recovery the 7 zones ensure that the natural curvature of your spine is supported from head to toe. A durable material, latex has been tried and tested to support your body no matter how you sleep. Pair this mattress with an adjustable bed base for additional support.
